DOL Addresses Health Plan Coverage for Return-to-Work COVID Testing and Other Issues

"The guidance clarifies that testing conducted to 'screen for general workplace health and safety, for public health surveillance, or for any other purpose not primarily intended for individualized diagnosis or treatment' is not covered under the FFCRA/CARES Act mandate.... The FAQs suggest that plans must provide notice 'within a reasonable timeframe' in advance of any cutback to the cost-free testing at the conclusion of the emergency period unless the plan had originally notified participants of the general duration of the benefits." ## COBRA Notice Class Actions Increasing

"Over the past few months, there have been a slew of class action lawsuits filed against several large employers alleging technical violations of COBRA's election notice requirements and seeking penalties and damages -- even where the employer used the model COBRA election notice form provided by the [DOL].... The DOL's model COBRA election notice form requires some employer customization, and the lawsuits generally allege that employers have not been customizing the forms correctly.... The specific allegations are slightly different in each case, but all revolve around technical defects." Full Article
